Please join us for a fun-filled weekend of field trips, social events, and educational presentations at WSO’s 81st annual convention in Two Rivers. Our convention partners include the Woodland Dunes Nature Center, the Lighthouse Inn & Conference Center, the Manitowoc Area Visitor & Convention Bureau, and the Two Rivers Main Street program.

PRE-REGISTRATION OPENS ON MARCH 1 (CLOSES APRIL 23)

ADULTS: $45  STUDENTS: $20

ONLINE at https://wsobirds.org/what-we-do/annual-convention  BY MAIL using the form on page 5

See instructions for filling out the mail-in registration form on the bottom of page 4.

Our hub of Two Rivers and the mid-May date offer great opportunities for viewing the annual spectacle of spring migration as birds move northwards along the lake. The Manitowoc impoundment, Point Beach State Forest, and Woodland Dunes Nature Center are just a few of the nearby birding attractions. Trips will also extend to other well-known birding areas within an hour of Two Rivers. Please review the full schedule of field trips on page 7 to get a better overview of your birding options!

The convention schedule and additional event details on pages 2-3 will give you a general overview of the weekend plans. Opening night events on Thursday, May 14, will all take place in downtown Two Rivers and are included with your registration fee. The Lighthouse Inn & Conference Center will serve as convention headquarters for the remainder of the weekend activities.

Friday, May 15, is all about birding field trips! There is a wide selection of all-day and part-day options. Additional activities scheduled after all field trips return include a “Big Sit” at the Manitowoc impoundment and a “Birds & Beers” social gathering.

Saturday morning, members of the local Bird Brunch Bunch will lead the traditional car caravan trips to nearby birding hot spots as well as two new “green birding” options by kayak and bicycle. A pancake breakfast event and guided hike at Woodland Dunes offers a more relaxed morning alternative. All field trips will return to the Lighthouse Inn in Two Rivers in time for the luncheon.

The Saturday afternoon line-up includes the annual WSO business meeting followed by speaker sessions on gull identification, invasive species in the lake, aerial insectivores, and scientific illustration. There will also be an opportunity to view and discuss research projects with the undergraduate and graduate students who have submitted a poster summary for display at the convention. Saturday evening festivities include a social hour, family style banquet, and the keynote address by Dr. Ben Zuckerberg on the topic of birds and climate change.

The convention will close with additional field trips on Sunday. Destinations will be designed for “heading home” in various outbound directions from Two Rivers.

Mail and online orders must be received by APRIL 23. NO registrations will be accepted after that date. Walk-in registration is available at convention for an increased fee (adults $55, students $25) and some options will not be available at that later date.

PLEASE NOTE that you are responsible for making your own lodging reservations!

See the top of page 4 for more information on lodging.

Registration questions: Please contact Christine Reel, convention registrar, by email or phone:
registration@wsobirds.org  262-844-8187.
Convention questions: Please email Nancy Nabak, convention chair:
conventionchair@wsobirds.org

Cancellation policy:

Full refund until the April 23 pre-registration cut-off date. After April 23, refund requests will be handled on an individual basis and we cannot guarantee a full refund. Contact the convention registrar.
